Training of N.C.O. Instructors

1. In the spring of 1946, non-commissioned officers who formerly were members of the Communist Party were sent to two schools established for training instructors in winter and Arctic warfare. These schools are:

- a) The Petrozavodsk Infantry School, which is new.
- b) The Kotlas Military School for self-propelled artillery and armored tank personnel, which is situated in Kotlas.

Army Formations

2. In Estonia

- a) Units of the 4th Guards Aviation Division were stationed in Estonia in June and July 1946.
- b) The 2nd Guards Anti-aircraft Regiment (Guardsvski P.V.O. Polk) was quartered in Tallinn.

3. In Latvia

- a) Units of the 6th and 8th Guards Aviation Division are stationed in Latvia.
- b) The 17th Communications Regiment (Polk Svyazi) is stationed in Riga and is most probably attached to the headquarters of the Baltic Military District, which is in Riga.
- c) Units of the 5th Tank Division were reported to be taking part in maneuvers in Latvia in June 1946.
